25,000 POUNDS OF EXPLOSIVES ON BOAT

NEW ARNOLD GIRL CLUE LEADS TO ITALY

"Circulation Books Open to All."

colorlo.

"Circulation Books Open to All."

PRICE ONE CENT.

Copyright, 1911, by The Press Publishing

NEW YORK, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY

Notables From Abroad Who Are Here to Attend

From Abroad Who Are Here to Attend the Wedding of Lord Decies and Vivian Gould MORE ARRESTS NEAR,

18 PAGES

PRICE ONE CENT.

DOROTHY ARNOLD SAILED FOR ITALY IN JANUARY, LATEST CLUE IN SEARCH

Rigger Declares He Saw Missing Girl Board the Cincinnati in January.

GRISCOM THRASHED.

Brother of Heiress Finds Sister's Double in Philadelphia After Searching City.

ployed on the piers of the Hamburg-American Steamship Company at Hoboken, came to-day a new clue to guide the daughter of Francis R. Arnold, the millionaire perfume importer, who dis-No. 108 East Seventy-ninth street, Dec.

Arnold on the liner Cincinnati just be- cars and instantly killed. old, who returned to-day from Phila- water line. If there had been a high delphia after a most disheartening disappointment, the new clue brought but even then, officers of the line said, fresh courage that Miss Arnold might get be found. search was a girl who was described by tures. Mr. Keith and Mr. Arnold found ride f.om Massillion, O., living with would even have deceived him were it and they were quickly calmed. The

The rigger, who provided the latest clue. says that he saw a girl whom he positively recognizes from the newspaper pictures of Miss Arnold young men before that ship sailed for Genoa on Jan. 5. She was then dressed in a tan automobile wrap over a blue ter barge, No. 56, was more serious. suit. Genoa is the nearest port to Florence, where George S. Griscom jr.

love letters, was at that time. On Return Trip.

The Cincinnati leaves Genoa to-mortow on her return trip, and the lawyer and family were trying to get a deseription from her officers by cable of any young woman resembling Miss Phillips, the rigger, explains his de- into a mud flat. mation which he took to the girl's $300,000 TO CORNELL father at their home. No. 108 East Seventy-ninth street, to-day by saying that he does not read newspapers except those printed in German and very few of those. He did not see a picture of Dorothy Arnold until he picked up a copy of the Evening World on Jan. 31. He took the picture to his wife, who does read English. lie asked her. "I saw her sail on the mother.

Cincinnati on Jan. 5." As soon as Mrs. Phillips exp ined about the missing girl, Phillips toor his first opportunity to call on Mr. Arnold. He said his attention was first attracted to the girl and her two companions when they were promenading the pler n anxious conversation before the shap sailed. They passed him many times. When they went aboard they went to a secluded part of the deck astern and continued their conversation. They were then very close to him. Mr. Keith showed Phillips all the pletures of Dorothy Arnold, and the mor of them he saw the surer he was of his

A "Miss Jones"

The passenger list of the Cincinnat for the trip of Jan. 5 does not bear the name of Miss Arnold. It does contain the name of a "Mirs Hessie Jones," resarding whom the officers of the line ally leave a record of their home at dress with the company. "Miss Jones

There were two names on the supple mentary list of first cabin passenger were booked from Philadelphia.

(Continued on Second Page.)

FALL RIVER LINER BUMPED BY BARGE.

Hole Ripped in Plymouth's Outer Bottom—Passengers

A jagged hole twenty-five feet was ripped in the outer skin of the Plymouth's double bottom, just above the wind some water might have alipped in, hurt to the ship was only superficial. not for a slight difference in the color Plymouth was only stopped for a few minutes, while men were lowered over the side to take a look at the gash in the hull. She reached her pier only a morrow another boat will be substituted board the liner Cincinnati with two for her and there will be no out-going

They were in a sandwich tow, with the man with whom she had exchanged Haven and Hartford Company between Lewis is chairman them in command of Capt. Demmary. Mr. Boslor was disculsified with the No. 35 slewed around and the coal and proceedings this afternoon and bindrain box cars were jumbled together, kills as counsel for Reilian. Sir. Goldber, > from the tow altogether and drifted the matter, is said to have made some up the river with the tide until a pass- remarks that further displeased Mr.

ITHACA, N. Y., Feb. 3-A gift of 100,000 by Mrs. Russell Sage to Cornell They met again in Lafavene street, Eniversity is announced by President about five minutes later. Buth had on of emphasis, "it's as exciting as a yeah, 'pon ny soul. I heard some one had neeting of militant suffragettes in Lon-"What is it about this young lady?" Risley Hail" in honor of Mrs. Saze's Goldberg's blows, was e not

Bat and Glove

ONE MAN KILLED

Scared but Unharmed.

the search for Dorothy H. C. Arnold, her pler at the foot of Warren street just after daybreak to-day, was bumped viciously by the New York, New Have foot of Fifty-third street. One man on the barge, Frank Thomas, the bow Phillips told a story of seeing Miss lineman, was caught between two coal

> Many of the 100 passengers of reakfast, were thrown off their feet b sek, some not properly drasted for the

She will be laid off for repairs. To-Barge No. 56 was wrenched feess tent of $1,000 and had some burgers in ing tug took charge of her and ran her Bosler.

GIVEN BY MRS. SAGE.

Thirty Years in Baseball;

The Interesting Story of His Own Career With ADRIAN ANSON

The Evening World Monday, Feb. 6

FIERCE FIST FIGHT BETWEEN LAWYERS IN COURT-ROOM

Round One in General Sessions, Round Two Contested in the Street.

COL WILKINSON

The first round was fourst in Part II. Lord Decies if he intended answering I'm not to old to put up me dukes with of the Court of General Massions. The Lord Decies if he intended answering the best of 'em, ch. Decies, me how?" of the Court of General Sessions. The Lord Decis is the constants then adjourned to Lafayette the challenge for a duel sent by one and the Captan gave His Lordship a dig in the risk hat made the peer stage to be borsewhipped in bloomers, when his mental condition before a commist tune hunting relic of a declining mon-Tug No. 15 of the New York, New slott in hinary, of which George L.

Mr. Boslor was discussified with the

The two barristers exchanged com- or some such balmy individual. pliments in the court room, and Mr. Bosler, leading his left, caught Mr.

As the contestents were squared off altime willing the contha fire something to tell the fellows at flome of it any longer. Every once in a maller mentic was called to the Singer about." from an auxiliary box on the cighth But Lord Decies said no, he wouldn't 1 presume. I thought at first it a floor Investigators who have been fight, anyway he didn't believe there some extraordinary American game, and tree discuss and do were discussed and the said tree discuss and do were discussed and the said tree discussions and do were discussed as the said tree discussions and the said tree discussions are discussed as the said tree discussions and the said tree discussions are discussed as the said tree discussed as the s a manus for sounding take alarms from had had him looked up and there was know, dean boy, I didn't find out in the big downtown buildings are com- no record of him in Burke's Peerage next morning that there had been an

LORD DECIES SAYS: "NO DUEL FOR ME," IN REPLY TO NOTE

'One Doesn't Do That Sort of Thing These Days, You Know," He Replies to His Questioners.

army officers-"you'd keep on writin"

Extraordinary Experience

"Well, we we and ran-I'm a good you'd see a window fail out and a man jump after it trying to save the pleasa.

FOR RACING RESULTS AND

ENTRIES SEE PAGE 18.

this afternoon, for Charles A. Belling. -St. Bartholomew s-an the afternoon known at the address he gave, third vice-president of the Brong Na- of Feb. 7, prepared to blow His Lord- "But reship, old have" bezzlement. He has been on trial as to violence stop the marriage of "a for- able soul and observant, too, "I should was intended for her.

> our great American houses," Has Not Answered.

"No. I haven't answered his cartel," said Lord Decies, "and I certainly explosion the other day. shall not. It's all blooming nonsense should think you newspaper chaps ould have something setter about than the ravings of this poor perisher, who talks like a Tom Tiddler

"Yes, I received his letters, but I chucked them in the waste basket and I suddenly saw a window fall out of and her snowy furs in the witness chair I'm not worried. I famey there won't Goldberg on the face, crushing his nose in considerably. Court attendants hustled Mr. Bosler and Mr. Goldberg et al. The not worried. I famou there wond the Stock Exchange-remarkable place. In considerably. Court attendants wards of there are any bomb throwing the Stock Exchange-remarkable place. I that—and splinter in a thousand pieces wards. I there are any bomb throwing the Stock Exchange-remarkable place. In that world are the stock exchange-remarkable place. In the Stock Exchange-remarkable place. I that world are the stock exchange-remarkable place. In the stock exchange exc force can take care of them.

used for a new dormitory for women aggressor, landing on Mr. (a dorners's don-but, I say, old chap, I shouldn't everybody sing in have said that, for my mother and sis- I ran with form steam, were poorly organish and failed get a july good wigging if they see runner, or used to be, and I like it-that in print." but it got a left monotonous and to "Oh, my eye, Decles," spoke up Cap- asked a man hear me why we were for round three friends dragged them tain the Hon. Charles Lund, who came running. I don't know,' he said, apart and helped them out of the neight over to be one of His Lordship's attend- and we kept Mr. game at the wedding and, with J. Arm- another and the said he didn't know Caliberg appeared to be a selection for strong Brexel, the avision, accompanied why, or where we were coming to punishment and was inside to quit the bridgerconvelect to the part, don't Well, I said, this is all right I be Whether or not a return and a sea of overlook the poor fellow's challenge. He to run, but I seldon run more than means it, y know, and it would add five miles and I'm sure we've partied re-could be the feativities merry as a this block ion times, welding bell and all that, y know. So I asked a freman whole we were Let's answer it by all means. I shall all going an-IN SINGER BUILDING. Let's answer it by an inequal to the Toron I constitute it was tone to quit fancy it's a tara-and we shall have 'Pon my we seeking the person who seems to have was such a person as Mr. Thomas. He a tew and rare discuss, and, do you The sach is lar rise rule is shortly of the Bus to the Bus to the So-chart tenants by the alterns were near a chine to the en-ternal tenants by the person was bout recovered in one of the sach to the Bus to the So-chart recovered in one of the sach to the Bus to the So-chart recovered in one of the sach to the Bus to the B

·Vould Not Fight.

It took ten minutes to locate the box and the local and seriously, we don't expect any from which the alarm had been given and during this time a ery descending elevator was jammed with stenographers you know, and I'm too old to start that street, stiended by a large and fervid assemblage. No decision was rendered, but those who were picted to be present that if the scion of the fall bad their own ideas as to the fittimated that if the scion of the fittimated to fight be. Mr. Themselves the church to the fittimated to fight be. Mr. The marriage and sent copies of them tage. Mrs. John David Scholl of No. 613 merits of the antagonists.

BLONDE AND HUBBY

Heresfords refused to light he, SH. the marriage and sent copies of them rage. Mrs. John David Scholl of No. 613

Mr. Hosler was commach, up to late Thomas, would be waiting at the church, to The World. "Mr. Thomas" is not fallerly avenue, the defendant, smiled "But reabily, old boy," continued scornfully and said Mrs. Walters need The damage to the float and her sistional Bank, under indictment for cm. ship to perfiling of "a forthe marriage of "a for

"I merely wished to give my husband archy" with the daughter of "one of heah such a lot of fame"-the captain a good beating," she said, "and as this drops his final g's like most English person in the hobble skirt got in the car, she got only what was coming to "Deah me," he continued, "I had an or pocketbooks and has a big plant at extraordinary experience. I was in No 281 Pitkin avenue. He separated what you call downtown, I believe, lookin' at the big buildin's, when it came. I'd learned not to be astonished at any-

> o gave us no warning," said Mrs. hourscribly bruned."

ory as late as 10 o lock at night?" Sametimes Works Overtime.

on, year? replied the roung woman.

HON MES WILKINSON LADY DECIES HON MES BARCLAY HON. R.S. BERESPORD PLIES HORSEWHIP ON HOBBLE-SKIRTED

Couldn't Run, so Had to Take the Blows, Blue Eyed Victim Tells Magistrate.

paragraphs about that most asconishing by

Jan David Schoft is a manufacture us home in the factory.

When the golden-haired and chinathe Stock Exchange-remarkable place, she was subjected to an exhaustive The wald that she and Mr. Scholl strolling along Glenmore avenue "By jove," he added, with a fine show have had whough mince meat for a strong up out of the ground, whip is pelled to take the trolley cars.

at the time, and if it had lift 'em you'd have night when Mrs. School seemed to sired to go above that street were comour up out of the ground, whip is pelled to take the trolley cars.

> bly broader than Mrs. Schull. lid not even vay a word-limit hald white. My shoulders and neck

I d. to pictics, to po ther and parter.

Tonse were just social engage- skut, was fractured and he will die. And does your husband know about

EIGHT MEN SURRENDER IN DYNAMITE DISASTER James Healing, Owner of Powder Boat, and Seven Others Give Up Following Indictments on Charge of Criminal Negligence.

THREE PUT UNDER BAIL, OTHERS ARE PAROLED.

Prosecutor Says He Has Positive Evidence That Blast Occurred Aboard the Catherine W. and That the Law Was Violated.

The eight men for whom warrants charging criminal carelessness and manslaughter were issued last night in connection with the Communipaw explosion of Wednesday, gave themselves up at intervals during the James Healing, the owner of the Catherine W., the dynamite lighter, and four employees of the Jersey Central Railroad were paroled in the custody of counsel, they being residents of New Jersey. Three em-The blue-eyed ployees of the Du Pont Powder Company were held in $5,000 bial each, they being residents of New York.

SUBWAY AN HOUR

Leaves Rails While Switching and Halts Traffic Above

157th Street.

An eight-car subway train tumped the an eight-car subway train jumped the opinion that other warrants will be rails this afternoon while switching issued to-night. thing, so the neise didn't bother me, but eyed Mrs. Walters had settled herself from the north to the south track on the Broadway branch at One Hundred little men in the employ of the big and Eighty-first street. All traffic was corporations involved and make 'goats cut off above One Hundred and Fifty- of them. We are after the men seventh street, and passengers who de- responsible for the disaster. As our

The tie-up lasted for more than an

and the witness descreety tracks, and all trains are switched over The eight warrants were not issued until as going to call on a man with Mr. to the southbound track to pass the 11.15 o'clock last hight, after the Board station obstructions. The train was under slow heatway Garven, Coroner Houghton, a coroner's naperon. He is becomed that on or traffic from the immediate neighbor- been gathered during the day. School come up and confronted hood, to say nothing of the threigh to appear when the cases were called traffic from Yonkers and other points. isn't it true?" asked the Court, "that It was completely halted until a wreck. to-day, after a long wall for the others s have been with Mr. School in the ing crew could get the train from the be domanded a hearing. The prosecu-

Hit By Subway Train.

Thomas Kyle, a laborer, employed by George Holmes, general counsel for the Interborough company, was struck the Jersey Central Hallroad, sy a subway train this afternoon at the court. He said he represented Alex-Procuan street station. He was em- ander Hamilton, general freight agent loyed at the station and failed to noibired tunn was taken, declares Kyle's defendants are charged with havin caused the death of Michael Massra, one I the men engaged in handling the dynamite at the time of the explosion. In the list of dead Massra's name has heretofore appeared as "Morro." At the offices of the Du Pont Powder Company in Wilmington, Del., to-day William Coyne, manager of the sales department, said that the lighter Catherine W., one of the two boats wrecked in the explosion at Communipaw, contained 15,000 pounds of dynamite and 10,ore pounds of black powder. The exploaves had been shipped from the company's plant at Kenvil, N. J., near Woodbury, for transportation to agents of the company in Brazil. "The eight indictments already found are only a beginning," said Prosecuto; Garvin this afternoon. "I am of the

"It is not our intention to pick out

Evidence Positive.

"I note," continued Mr. Garvin, "that The Interhorough is extending all the Mr. Healing, the owner of the Cath station platforms in the region, and at some W. said in an interview yeater one Hundred and Highty-first street is day that the explosion could not have blasting for a new entrance at the occurred on his boat, as she was just ow did you happen to be out with north end of the staton. These im- tying up to the pler when the dynaprovements have forced the temporary mite let go. Well, our evidence on that suspension of the use of the northbound point is positive. The explosion oc-

I alone? Always before I have had when it jumped the track and no one jury of six and several police officials

Healing was the only one of the eight tion did not have its witnesses on hand and Healing was sent to jail. Will Surrender To-Morrow.

of the road, J. M. Morris, local freight Dr. agent at Jersey City; Louis F. Galler the dette, dockmaster at Pier 7, where the explosion occurred, and Charles Ridder, freight checker at that pier. By agree-World Building Turkish Baths always open fash with intrate rooms, $1. Barber and Manhoure. Charopodist is attended promised to produce them to-morrow